The Chieftain

Calumet High School
3900 Calhoun Street
Gary, Indiana

Edited By: Velida Drake
Pam Saroff

Perspective. . .the relationship of the parts of a whole, regarded at a certain time from a particular standpoint.

The Chieftain comprehensively views the elements of Calumet High School 1964-65, a new building, new faces, a more varied curriculum, changes, and traditions.

As time passes, the perspective will become clearer, but specific details will fade. The pages of the Chieftain preserve these details—capturing special events and familiar faces to vividly conjure up the elements and spirit which made this year special.

School Life

Working, playing, Calumet High School students are active members of the community.

When President Johnson came to Gary to make campaign speeches, Calumet students were there.

In grocery stores and shopping centers, Calumet students collected contributions for the Polio Drive; and when the first-place trophy for the Drive was awarded, they were there, to accept it.

Snow-ball fights, proms, or assemblies, all a part of the perspective—they were there, separately, together, throughout 1965.

A Calumet Life Is Active,

STUDENTS dance the bird to the beat of Randy's Renegades.

SILENCE, and the sign on the door explains "We are testing."

LA DONNA Frye and Darrel Peddycourt raise "Old Glory."

MR. Miller and Mr. Karagin were given a surprise party. Students were surprised they got away with it!

GERRY Loy takes a self-tour of the new Industrial Arts Building.

Full, And Complete

STUDENTS had to watch their step on the snow and ice covered sidewalks and streets during the winter months.

LADEN with books, Anna Razumow and Carla Thornberry walk to the bus stop.

"HAVE to stay after school for another meeting, mom," Carrie Greer says.

TOM Sevcik combs his hair at a washroom mirror.

ALMOST every week, some student was encased in plaster casts then decorated with autographs and popular sayings.

Parties, Activities, And Helping

CHUCK Peterson and Ken Metz serenade at an impromptu class room concert.

AFTER school Terry Evans and Dennis Doerr finish up some advertising for the Warrior.

The routine of study and classes was broken by impromptu class parties, working for various teachers, and participating in the many school activities.

PAM Jones attacks the batter while Linda Malone earnestly watches on.

MR. Karigin tells Mr. Miller another of his annual jokes at the senior Christmas Party.

Break School Routine

DON Peardon, Randy Lowery, and Bob Reeves take class attendance, one of their regular duties as gym assistants.

GOING through one of her usual duties Miss Shonkwiler provides information for Bryan Dye.

OFFICE assistant Rosie Brock strolls down the unusually deserted hallway.

Operation of the school was greatly helped with the number of students who assisted in the office, worked as lab assistants, and helped in other departments.

SENIOR, Sharon Hight, gets career information from the counselor's office.

THE "Rough Riders" sit in solemn defeat after the "Warrior" victory. Girls donned black leather jackets for this loyalty day skit.

G.A.A. president Linda Peters reads the purpose of Loyalty Day.

Cheers, Skit, Cake Honor Warriors

Introducing:

Cross

Coleman

Brown

Nies

TENNIS Halsey and Anita Lanning discuss their ring preferences as they examine the samples in the trophy case.

DON Boltema gets the projector ready to show a movie—the less painful way to distribute knowledge.

JACKIE McCord strikes up the band for its next formation.

WORKING a locker combination quickly is a skill of Calumet students demonstrated by Vivian Hubers.

DOUG Sink and Vaughn Metz compare notes during a library study session.

Winter Brings Snow Fights

ERA Freeman and Anna Cook try their hand at snowman-building. Anna appears discouraged at their progress.

QUARRY with snowballs or is it revenge they seek?

SOMEONE built a snowman on the roof wearing feathers and a "C."

"I'll get you back, you fink!" yells Judy Stansberry.

RON Ashby and Sandra Brunn pause from their Christmas carol singing to come in and get warm.

Parties, And Basketball Wins

SYMBOLS of a victorious Holiday Tourney gleam in the lights of the Christmas tree.

Winter came to Calumet High School students in a gift package that held a victorious holiday tourney, snowball fights, and Christmas trees in the halls and in the library.

In many of the red and green decorated rooms, students held class parties. Gifts were presented to teachers (Mr. Miller and Mr. Karagin received a set of turtles), cookies, cake, pop, and potato chips were in surplus.

Spreading cheer to others, Calumet girls made Christmas Cheer Baskets and went caroling in the hospitals.

"HA! Ha! Ha!" laughs Ron Ashby, watch out for those "Big, Bad Juniors" with snowballs!

THE Christmas nativity sits solemnly above the blackboard reminding us of the true meaning of the holiday.

"COME on now—get into those parts!" Mr. Borlick directs thespians.

"HERE come the Warriors!"

CHS STUDENTS IN ACTION

MR. Joseph delivers a stirring pep talk to team members and the student body.

"HOMECOMING-Queen candidates are. . ." Dennis Doerr pauses as suspense builds.

RAY Lowell and friend dance to the blare of a juke box during lunch hour.

"Everybody Yelling!"

PLAYERS sit pensively waiting for their names to be called.

"CALUMET Warriors, we're all for you," chants cheerleader Jeanne Lynch.

THE day's studies halt when 1500 students crowd into the gym for a pep session.

Students Seek Polio Drive Contributions

For two weeks Calumet students worked vigorously on the Polio Drive in a successful attempt to hold the first place honors for two years straight.

Chairman Tony Valencia assigned workers positions throughout the Calumet area in grocery stores and shopping centers.

Dime climbs and a slave auction were held at school. Cheerleaders passed a blanket at basketball games and students voted for their favorite teacher for a nickel.

Winning by $800, Calumet collected $2200.

ASSISTANT Principal, Mr. Tsangaris starts the Polio Drive with his contribution. Co-chairman Elaine Cox says "Thank you—every dime counts!"

"HMMM . . ." Jeff Wilsey scratches his head thoughtfully, "I wonder who's been eating all our candy." You get hungry counting money think Tony Valencia, Janice Martin, Theresa Borns, and Joe Cudziol.

EVEN children contributed to the March of Dimes. Julie Valenga and Elaine Roll were stationed at a local grocery store.

JUDY Saroff tried to cover the whole Village Shopping Center, patrons and proprietors were asked, "Would you like to contribute to the March of Dimes?"

Calumet First In State!

CHEERLEADERS Candy Carpenter, Elaine Roll, Janice Rister, and Linda Smith "Pass the Blanket" at the Dyer game giving spectators a chance to donate to the Polio Drive. We came in first not only in the county, but in the STATE with $2,200.

"RANDY and the Renegades" (Randy Fields, Larry Beasley, and Ken Metz) played at a dance sponsored by Student Council for the Polio Drive.

GUITARIST sings out while students dance the Jerk at the Polio Dance.

JANICE Rister and Linda Smith look enthused about the amount taken in when informed by Mr. Vass, Guidance Counselor, that last year's total was already surpassed.

Honors

G.A.A. Ball Queen Julie Valenga is flanked by her court Judy Chiamonte and Barbara Kinder.

"THE Tsangaris Trophy" will be presented to the student who has contributed the most to Calumet High School.

KEN Metz and Chuck Peterson, who won honors in the National Merit Scholarship Contest, congratulate finalist Clem Lessner, who won a scholarship.

Bring Thrills To Recipients

GIRLS' State Delegates are Elaine Roll, Kathy Vaneck, and Diane Kruse. Boys' Staters are Jeff Shadwell and Bud Riegle.

D.A.R. winner Diane Kruse took part in the Honor Society's candle-lighting induction.

DIANE serves as a lab tech in chemistry class.

It Begins At 10:30—Hunger Pangs!

LINDA Miller, Judy Nies, Sharon Cather, and Judy Held move through the hot lunch line. CALUMET students make their daily trek to a favorite lunch place—"The M & E."

IN the crowded cafeteria, students get a break from classes, small talk with friends and a good lunch.

CONNIE Mullens (with cupcake) and Vickie Muncie find time from their extra-curricular activities to enjoy a snack.

THEN to relax and enjoy it!

VAL Bridgeman devours a cookie.

The Faces Of Calumet

Staff Keeps School Moving

COOKS Mrs. Randhan, Mrs. Skinner, Edna Strode and Mrs. Koedyker chat over coffee and sandwiches.

"HOW many more pizza-burgers shall I fix?", asks Mrs. Koedyker.

CUSTODIAN Ann Foy sweeps one of the classrooms after school.

"EASY does it," says "Roy the Milkman," as he delivers the day's supply of milk.

A clean school and nutritious meals are the products of the school cooks and custodians.

The custodians may be seen any time of the day, washing windows, sweeping the halls, or helping a confused student locate an extra desk.

The cooks arrive at the cafeteria early in the morning to begin their daily chore of preparing lunches for some 500 hungry students.

Their jobs contribute much to the daily, effective running of the school.

"MMM, that cherry pie looks delicious," Mrs. Randhan tells Edna Strode.

Assemblies Entertain, Educate

DR. Manlove speaks to the student body about the N.C.A. evaluation.

Students savored the one-hour breaks in class routine provided by the many assemblies held this year. Members of various athletic teams were recognized at pep sessions. Students had a sing-along when a guest gospel singer provided a one-man minstrel show. They saw student council members inducted and met the men on the North Central Association evaluating committee. There was Loyalty Day, and Patriotic Day, and Judge Obermiller's speech, and the student body cheered and sang, and laughed and applauded, and sat quietly listening.

"COACH Traicoff and the Warrior" to battle the Rough Riders in the senior girls' Loyalty Day skit.

GOSPEL singer Charles King provided an assembly which included student participation.

ROBERT Hoover plays the blues on his sax.

BACKSTAGE before the A cappella Christmas program, last minute touches are added to the tree.

Curriculum

In the fertile field of a pupil's mind, learning is cultivated. Instructors labor to sow thoughts, ideas, and skills, which steadily grow and mature into fields of knowledge.

The student's future depends greatly upon the knowledge he obtains in high school. The varied facets of Calumet High School's curriculum were created to satisfy the individual needs and interests of every student. Whether the student needs academic or vocational training, he has a wide range of courses to choose from.

Because education is the primary concern of a school, the curriculum is the most important part of the perspective of Calumet High School.

PRINCIPAL, Max Hile looks over the football field's new lawn.

THE busiest man at Calumet High School, Mr. Hile, can usually be found talking on the phone.

Two of Calumet High School's busiest men are Mr. Max Hile, Principal, and Mr. John Tsangaris, Vice Principal.

There is an endless round of telephone calls, attendance at most school activities, and all the other things which school executives crowd onto their calendars.

Calumet's Busy Men

MR. John Tsangaris, assistant principal, has his office decorated with signs such as, "Flunk now, avoid the rush later."

"WHY were you late to class today?" is a question Mr. Tsangaris asks many students each day when they come to his office for an admit to class.

Board Prepares For NCA Visit

DR. Charles L. Sharp, Superintendent of Schools.

MR. Alfred Speck, Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

ATTENDANCE officer Mr. Terrell checks truancies at Calumet High School.

THE 1964-65 School Board includes: Mrs. Katherine Kusak; President of the Board Mr. Earl Riegler; Superintendent of Schools Dr. Charles Sharp; Mr. Austin Moore, Mr. R. Marty Schmidt, and Mr. John Fielder Davis.

The School Board formulates the policies of all Calumet area schools, which are carried out by Dr. Charles Sharp, Superintendent of Schools.

The 1964-65 Board worked on plans to prepare Calumet High School for the requirements of the North Central Association.

They also worked on an extensive building program, part of which provided for Calumet's new industrial arts building.

Office Staff Smooths School Operation

MRS. Corinne Redar, school bookkeeper and treasurer.

JEWELL Gambill checks the attendance record of one too-often-truant-student.

MISS Mardell Hollar, secretary, performs one of her many office duties.

OFFICE girl, Gloria Hubbard arranges supplies in the bookstore for sale.

SCHOOL nurse, Mrs. Ronjak, smiles though heaps of students' medical records confront her.

On the surface it looks like a beehive of confusion, but the office actually runs efficiently due to the efforts of secretaries Miss Hollar and Miss Gamble, and the student office girls.

Bookkeeper Mrs. Redar keeps the school financial records in order.

Counselors Map Student Futures

Helping students plan their future is the main concern of guidance counselors, Miss Ada Shonkwiler, Mr. Nick Julius, and Mr. Michael Vass.

Planning schedules of curriculum with students, obtaining scholarships, and helping students with college applications and entrance exams are a few of their duties.

MR. Nick Julius spent the first semester as high school counselor before his promotion to junior high Vice-Principal.

MISS Shonkwiler gives Staff Sergeant Niles, USAF, a list of boys who are taking the Air Force Aptitude Tests.

MR. Michael Vass is serving his first year as guidance counselor.

"LOOK, Wayne, you CAN'T go to Vassar!" says Mr. Vass during his counseling session with senior Wayne Flaharty.

Government Economics: Mean Work!

Seniors are snowed under with the scores of assignments that befall them in government and economics classes.

Five-hundred-page notebooks, Gallup Polls, graphs of Dow-Jones stock market reports, television programs on current events, book reports . . . Last minute procrastinators are up until 3 a. m. the night before an examination; but everyone learns to play the stock market, fill out tax forms, and vote.

GOVERNMENT and economics students spend hours each week in the library preparing notebooks, recording Gallup polls and Dow-Jones averages, etc. La Donna Frye studies a current issue of the New York Times to get information for her notebook.

MR. Traicoff's government class gets an informal lecture.

Civics One Of Many Changes At C.H S.

WORLD history teacher Mr. Starkey is shown while speaking to one class on the Moslem Empire.

STUDENTS in Mr. Alvarez's civics class view many films on community life.

Civics was introduced this year as a part of the freshmen list of "required courses", while sophomores added world history to their list. U.S. history is required for juniors. For those wishing to continue in this field, sociology is also offered.

From Twain To Shakespeare

"TO be, or not to be:"

"THAT is the question. . ."

"NOW . . . any questions?"

"WELL, so much for Shakespeare."

DICK Chiliras utilizes notes in presenting his explanatory speech.

"WELL, according to . . ." English students Rich Chandler and Jerry Moyer prepare a composition.

From Mark Twain to Chaucer, English students journey through the world of literature. One semester of each of the four years of English is devoted to diagramming sentences, underlining verbs and adjectives, and otherwise exercising the mechanics of grammar.

For those who wish to study English as an art, composition, speech, and journalism are offered.

Students Practice Communication Arts

Paul Borlick
Valaparaíso University, B.S.

Kenneth Richardson
Ball State, B.S.

Two phases of the art of communication, speech and journalism, further student knowledge of English.

Speech students begin with three-minute speeches and, after overcoming "stage fright" and developing a speaking confidence, they hold debates.

The newspaper and yearbook draw their staffs and editors from the journalism classes. Learning to write copy in a good journalistic style, increasing their vocabulary, and learning the behind-the-scenes methods of compiling a newspaper are the goals of the journalists.

"THE important thing about newspaper work," Mr. Richardson tells his journalism class, "is meeting deadlines."

DICK Cheliras searches for material for his speech.

MARGENE Waters studies the "Human Appeal" of a headline.

"I'VE almost got the grading scale for these speech outlines figured out," says Mr. Borlick. "All I have to do is grade the papers."

"Si", "Ou'i," Language Is Fun!

Irvin Zielinski
Indiana University, M.S.

MEMBERS of this foreign language class are eager to try their hand at speaking a part in a skit.

BELOW: To learn properly another language, one must spend much time studying it as this student is doing.

Quaint melodies of French folk songs, and selections from Debussy and Bizet may be heard in a typical French class meeting. Students also study reproductions of the masterpieces of French impressionist painters to gain an insight into the true French way of life.

Pictures and films of Roman gods, aqueducts, and togas help Latin classes explore the splendors of ancient Rome.

Mr. Edgardo de Caturlo, the new Spanish teacher, encouraged his students to speak only Spanish in class and gave them a realistic view of life in Spanish-speaking Cuba.

Training Makes Better Drivers

MR. Bjelich and his driver's training pupils search for a windshield scraper before they begin the lesson.

NO, they're not leaving the school grounds during lunch hour... Rita Harrison and Lisa Good are taking a driving lesson.

"You are driving car A. You enter a circle from Route #11, west, and leave it on Route #6 northeast. Draw in your path, assuming that car B will enter from Route #2, about the time you reach that intersection, and that it will move to leave on Route #11, west. Where will the possible points of conflict be?"

This is the type of problem presented to Driver's Training students in the classroom training part of their program. After learning the fundamentals of safe driving, the students gain actual experience behind the wheel.

New Instructor, New Facilities For Art

THE steady drone of hammering fills the art room during leather crafts as Stan Parker completes his project.

ART instructor Mr. Roy Wilson often doubles as printer.

CAREFULLY applying each brush stroke Ed Rogers artist paints his subject.

The creative talents of CHS students are steadily encouraged and developed through four years of art.

Besides creating with leather, paint, and clay, junior artists apply skills by producing art work for various school organizations.

WITH ample room and light, Susan Leroy and Betty Hubbard thread the loom before weaving a rug.

FRESHMAN Algebra students work a problem in a drill on the board.

BIOLOGY teacher Mr. Cole uses visual aids to explain biological concepts.

A girl shudders as she makes her first incision into an earthworm; the halls fill with the pungent odor of rotten eggs, produced by Chemistry I classes; mathematicians spend two hours solving a calculus problem—these are the sights, sounds, and smells of a typical day in the math and science departments.

From general science to physics, from business arithmetic to trigonometry, students learn constantly the intricacies of a complex world.

A GOOD portion of Miss Yatsco's calculus class pause from their studies to be caught by the photographer.

D.E.: A Practice In Business Skills

KIM Barnard learns the many things involved in selling a pair of shoes.

A modern, complete business curriculum prepares CHS students to help turn the wheels of industry.

A foundation in business is built in general business, business arithmetic, bookkeeping, and business law. Two years of typing and shorthand complement a secretarial course, supplemented by office practice. Retailing, salesmanship, and DE help those who will be meeting the public in the course of their jobs.

HE makes the sale, and a "clerk" rings it up.

P.E. Recruits Suffer

LLOYD Starrick and Eugene Ruzzini find the anatomy of a homo sapien somewhat perplexing. The one in the middle is . . uh . . ?

A student in Freshman P.E. hurries for attendance check-off.

RANDY Lowry, gym assistant, checks the dress of members of the class.

CATHY Brown appears to be pleased with her forward roll.

Sore Muscles And Back Aches

"COME on! You'll make it!"

Many Calumet High School underclassmen suffer daily back aches and sore muscles as a result of the strenuous work-outs they undergo in physical education classes.

Panting and puffing, they laboriously push one foot after another in an effort to circle the track once; or find themselves frozen in weird positions during tumbling exercises.

However, the soreness quickly subsides, and the shock of a cold shower at 8:25 a.m. dulls with repetition, and physical fitness marches on.

SILENT march to the showers concludes daily P.E. agenda.

WARM weather brings P.E. students outdoors to "Hit and Run."

HOME EC students enjoy the nutritious meal they prepared.

ED DeMars and Ed Chestovich work on their project for advanced woodshop—a set of bookends.

Creative energy is applied to practical chores in Home Economics and wood shop courses.

In home ec classes, girls puzzle over how to put a zipper in correctly, or how to put variety into a weekly menu. They design "dream homes" and grapple with bandages in first aid practice.

Woodshoppers made pieces of furniture with new equipment this year. The shop buzzed with activity as junior carpenters sawed, hammered, and varnished their way to bookends, chairs, and shoe-shine kits.

IN home nursing class, girls demonstrate the correct method of bathing an invalid.

Machinery Set Up In New Building

After setting up machinery in the new vocational building, mechanical drawing students prepared drawings of machines for beginning projects; then worked up to floor plans of homes and other buildings.

Machine blueprints are helpful too in metal shop, where boys may use them to turn out simple machinery such as hammers and punches on lathes.

BUTCH Sutton concentrates on his mechanical drawing assignment.

BILL Zarick and Wiley Kennedy work together on a metal shop project.

The perspective brightens as the camera catches Calumet High School students at club meetings, both during and after school.

Initiations with egg-yolk plastered girls, long play rehearsals that consist mainly of Coke breaks, a trip to a hockey game and a stage play, taffy apple sales, spring banquets, these make up the part of the perspective that is clubs and organizations.

Honor Society Introduces

BOB Hoover led the Honor Society initiates with the traditional torch.

SENIOR Honor Society officers Barb Cool-ey, secretary; Chuck Peterson, vice-president; La Donna Frye, treasurer; Ken Metz, president and reporter Diane Kruse rehearse their induction speeches.

Senior Honor Society invited state legislator, Miss Ann Maloney to speak at their Patriotic Day assembly. Loyalty to country and state was stressed at the assembly. Red, white, and blue flags and streamers decorated the gym, the A Cappella sang the National Anthem, and the pledge of allegiance held a special meaning that day.

DAVE Plews promotes Honor Society's Patriotic Day.

JUNIOR Honor Society inductee, Susan Teitge is told her new duties.

Patriotic Day

Honor Society inductees were honored at a candle-lighting ceremony, attended by parents, members, and faculty. After lighting their candles, the new members repeated the pledge of honor and received pins and corsages. Speeches were given by officers and Mr. Hile. Ken Metz, Larry Pace, and Clem Lessner provided musical entertainment.

MR. Zielinski passes out flowers to Junior Honor Society officers before the induction.

NEW member Johnica Stoeff receives ribbon from vice president, Karen Ferrell.

PRESIDENT, Richard Cheliras pins corsage on vice-president, Karen Ferrell, while secretary, Linda Click, treasurer, Dana Williams, and reporter, Marty Pichler look on.

STUDENT Council organized homecoming festivities. Elaine Roll and Dan Robertson wait anxiously to see who will receive the queen's roses from Elaine Cox.

MR. Yacko gets some punch from Patty Foy at the council-sponsored Faculty Tea.

Council Sponsors Homecoming

STUDENT Council officers and sponsor received corsages at their induction. They are: Elaine Cox, president; Mrs. Lela Cooke, sponsor; Barb Cooley, parliamentarian, Terry Evans, vice president; Julie Valenga, secretary; and Ed Chestovich.

POLIO Drive king and queen sophomores Ron Reynolds and Judy Chiaramonte received gifts on induction day.

Talent Show

Judge Obermiller spoke at the induction for Council members and received thunderous applause.

And there was a great deal of applause at the Talent Show, after Council members recruited every available talent asset at Calumet.

School Spirit Week, the Faculty Tea, the Flag Raising Ceremonies. . . these were 1965 Student Council innovations.

JUDGE Obermiller talks to John Coffman after presenting his speech on induction day.

JUNIOR Chairman of the Polio Drive, Ed Chestovich, proudly displays the first-place trophy to junior student council members. Standing: Milka Pancheff, Alice Green, Margaret Shufford, Doug Sink, John Coffman, Terry Evans, Ed Chestovich. Sitting: Judy Muyskens, Margaret Skidmore, Candy Carpenter.

MRS. Vaneck makes her Polio Drive contribution to Dana Williams and Pauline Leiva.

TECH Rich Smith works on his qual. All lab techs are automatic members of Chemistry Club.

Club Members In Accident

REPRESENTATIVE from Inland Steel speaks to Jim Feeney about new careers in the steel industry.

GEORGE Yarbrough, Andrea Seberger and Mike Flint check for needed supplies the club will donate.

The Chemistry Club's all-day field trip to Northwestern University ended in near disaster when the students' bus collided with two cars and a truck. Club members spent the morning on the bus. They were saved from starvation by the thoughtful preparation of several boys who brought fried chicken along.

TOM Guzman and Mike Freed look for their names on the bus list.

Library Expands Considerably

YOU can't get in the library without a pass, and John Wagner makes sure no one does.

LIBRARY Assistant Linda Chandler searches the card file for a certain book.

Masters of the card file and of the Dewey decimal system, the library assistants are always on hand to aid library guests in locating and checking out books and other reading material.

Mrs. Morrison trains these prospective librarians in all phases of athenaeum maintenance.

LIBRARIAN Mrs. Mildred Morrison repairs a torn magazine.

BARBARA Shipp, Treasurer; Rochelle Terpstra, Secretary; Linda Chandler, Co-Vice-President; Diane Bultema, President; and Yvonne Thompson, Co-Vice-President.

RAY Lowell and Pat Thornberry look approvingly at a painting which will be discussed at one of the Fine Arts Club meetings.

MUSIC Appreciation Club president Don Slater.

Students Enjoy Art, Old And New

FINE Arts Club officers Keith Bennet, secretary; Jeff Shadwell, treasurer; Andrea Seberger, president; and Kathy Adinolfi, vice-president display souvenirs from the play "Oliver" which they saw in Chicago.

The aim of two clubs, Fine Arts and Music Appreciation, is to promote an active interest in the arts among high school students.

The Fine Arts Club attended plays such as "Oliver" and "Funny Girl" in Chicago, and browsed in the Art Museum on another field trip.

Beethoven or the Beatles may be scheduled for the Music Appreciation Club agenda. The weekly program of records is compiled by a committee, whose members are alternated every third meeting.

Choir Concentrates On Religious Music

New Director Shapes Choir

"DO, Re, Mi." Mr. Jack Trippe demonstrates proper breathing.

"IT'S been a long, hard day!" sighs A Cappella members after a three-hour practice session.

THE A Cappella dons robes and stoles for the annual high school Christmas program.

A Cappella members accumulated quite a collection of programs and hoarse throats from presentations of the Choral Festival, the Spring Choral Concert and Christmas Choral Concert.

At Christmas time the group had a full schedule of programs for the high school, the junior high and various grade schools.

They also entertained at P.T.A. meetings, church services, Baccalaureate, graduation, and at the Gary Hotel.

BRENDA Mayes rehearses her solo part and self-accompaniment in the chorus room after school.

Secretarial Club Shows Fashions

TICKETS for the Secretarial Club style show went fast for Judy Held.

MARIE Freeman, new president, makes flower decorations for the style show.

SECRETARIAL Club officers Janice Rister, former president Henri Hanson, Elaine Cox, and Sandy Kristoff.

COMMITTEE chairmen for Secretarial Club activities Julie Valenga, Era Freeman, Carol Blankenship, Bernadette Torchia, Joyce Beck, Anna Cook and Margaret Skidmore.

Girls worked for months preparing for the Secretarial Club's annual fashion show. This year, boys, as well as girls, were fitted for the showing of spring fashions. The A Cappella entertained and refreshments were served to guests and hungry models after the show.

Pins And Balls Clash!

BOWLING League officers are: Jim Petersen, Treasurer; Larry Pace, Secretary; and David Plews, President.

"OH well, chalk up another strike for them," murmurs senior Melvin Maxwell.

Amid the steady clash of pins and bowling balls, forty boys compete weekly at Tri-City Lanes.

At the season's end, the ten teams send highest scorers to contend with other school leagues. Mr. Zielinski's alley-men are given a chance to gorge themselves at their annual Bowling Banquet where trophies and awards are presented.

BRUCE Shutzz grimaces as he puts all his weight behind the ball.

CHS Wins Three Places In D.E. Contest

D.E. Club officers are Robert Trujillo, parliamentarian; Bob Carden, treasurer; Yvonne Newsome, vice-president; Linda Kelso, secretary; and Don Slater, president.

JUDY McLean sets up a display counter in the D.E. room.

DISTRIBUTIVE Education Club played host to several prominent speakers, such as Wendy Ward, fashion model.

Promotion of good employer-employee relationships was the Distributive Education Club's 1965 objective. Displays built by D. E. students were featured at a club get-together where parents, student employees and their employers became better acquainted. Student workers invited their bosses to a banquet later in the year.

Fifteen Calumet D. E. members went to vote for state D. E. officers at Indianapolis; and on March 11, the regional D. E. contests, in which five schools participated, were held at Calumet. Out of five contests, CHS students placed in three.

Homemakers Aid Needy Families

HOMEMAKING Club officers are (L. to R.): Velida Drake, treasurer; Pat Oberc, recording secretary; Marion Eichelberger, corresponding secretary; Judy Nies, vice-president; Janice Martin, reporter; Judy Ferrell, historian and Pat Williams (seated), president.

A candle-lighting ceremony highlighted the Homemaking Club's initiation of new members. The girls were entertained with the music of Randy and the Renegades and the Madrigals during the following pizza supper.

The Yule season found the Homemakers packing Christmas Cheer Baskets with toys, food, and clothing for needy families in the school community. The service club's taffy apple sales and candy sales financed two scholarships for senior club members.

The year ended with the Spring Banquet honoring the senior club members.

THIS is but a portion of the goods acquired by the Homemaking Club this year for delivery to needy families of the area. The club reached eight families this year.

F.H.A. Aids Needy Families

F.H.A. officers are Public Relations, Mary Lou Slein; Parliamentarian, Janice Bentley; Treasurer, Sharon Hight; Vice-President, Teresa Bennett; President, Pat Thornberry; Secretary, Linda Peters; Reporter, Barbara Kinder; and Historian, Darlene Greer.

SHARON Fleming, Louise Kirkland, and Marsha Michael prepare F.H.A. Cheer Baskets.

LINDA Chandler signs Bake Sale list while Rita Harrison, and Linda Johnson look on.

The Future Homemakers of America Club's main project this year was the assembly and distribution of Christmas Cheer Baskets to needy families in the Calumet area.

F.H.A. members rounded up toys and food and clothing, and the Home Economics room was converted into a workshop, crowded with bags and boxes until the girls made delivery.

TERESA Bennett and Cindy Ash discuss future activities.

TAB Club members Jerry Jongsoma, Rodney Handly, Ron Simunic and Mike Kurts receive a new order of books.

SANDY Brunn secretary, and Sheryl VanVleck, president, discuss new books on the Tab list.

Paper-back editions of many books, from short fiction and novels to informative material, may be purchased through TABS, Calumet High School's Teen Age Book Club.

Any student may purchase books from the club by selecting them from the "newsletter!"

Twenty Boys Pack In A Wash Tub

CALUMENT'S "Youth for Christ Club" was rechristened "Nu Gamma Chi Club" this year, officers Judy Muyakens, Jerry Banks, Diane Kruse and president Dorothy Weyhe display signs announcing the change.

Ever see twenty boys packed into a wash tub? Nu Gamma Chi members did at one of their district rallies which features a "Tub Pack" contest and a Bible quiz.

Home meetings carried themes such as "Thanks for America," and "Backwards" (the entire meeting was held backwards, with dismissal first and even the chairs turned around).

The club also got together for caroling at Christmas time and threw a party afterwards.

Seniors Defeated In Powderpuff Contest

IN the Homecoming Parade, sophomores boarded a truck and moved through the township shouting, "VICTORY!" and they won!

When the Homecoming Parade participants were back at the high school, the G.A.A. girls took over. They came running onto the football field, fierce in warpaint, whooping and screaming at the top of their lungs.

The game was neck-in-neck until the last quarter. The sophomores battered their way to certain victory; and for the first time in Powderpuff history, upperclassmen suffered defeat.

SENIOR and junior Warriorettes line up for a practice session.

FEATHERS fly as upperclassmen clash with underclassmen under the night lights at the Powderpuff game.

G.A.A. officers (First Row) Linda Peters, president; Vickie Volk, secretary; Jeannie Lynch, second vice-president. (Second Row) Linda Smith, first vice-president; and Judy Nies, treasurer.

THE senior girls' skit made a pretty picture. Marilyn Davis, Elaine Cox, Judy Held and Linda Anserello make like a scene in the park.

BERNIE Torchia does an imitation of Coach Triacoff for the Loyalty Day skit.

THE three junior "bears" are Linda Meyers, "Poppa"; Linda Smith, "Baby"; and Maggie Skidmore, "Mamma."

THIS poor initiate got tickled, soaked with after-shave lotion, and plastered with raw eggs.

"COACH" Dana Williams tells one of her "gridirons" to shape up.

VARSITY Club officers are Clarence Harper, treasurer; Morris Nies, secretary; vice-president, Fred Leaf; and president, Vaughn Metz.

The Varsity Club membership consists of boys who have won a major letter by two or more years participation in athletics.

Varsity Club members slipped into some of the sweat-shirts they were selling, filled buckets with soap and water, and hung out a shingle advertising their, "Car Wash."

The lettermen sponsored a dance and used the proceeds for bus fare to a hockey game.

DAVE Peterson and Lloyd Simms explore beneath the hood. Drivers' Club members learn all facets of driving skills.

Drivers' Theme: Safety First

Behind-the-wheel specialists took notes on safe driving at the Safety Roundup, held at the Speedway.

Following their theme of safety in driving, guest speakers and films were featured at Drivers' Club meetings.

DRIVERS' Club officers are Jackie McCord, secretary; Roxie Latham, president; and Dan Diehl, vice-president.

Banquets And Beach Parties On

LATIN Club officers include John Nicora, reporter; Judy Muyskins, secretary; Dave Plews, treasurer; Barbara Cooley, president; and toga-folder Wally Moosemiller.

JESSE Bolinger packs papers to donate to the Latin Club's annual paper drive.

FRENCH Club president Diane Kruse sells a box of candy.

Togas, sandals, candles and reclining diners set the mood for the Latin Club's Spring Banquet. Other parties included a bowling party and a pizza party. Students collected funds for these festivities by holding a paper drive; but the papers, and the students, got a little wet.

JEANNE Nies, Robert Hoover, and Barbara Shipp count proceeds from the French Club's candy sale.

Clubs' Agenda

PAN AM Club officers: Al Fino Alvarez, Judy Nies, sponsor Mr. de Caturia, Evelyn Barnett, and Linda Cole.

EVELYN Barnett, Linda Cole, and John Alvarez decorate the gym for the Pam Am Club sock-hop.

Field trips and fund-raising projects headlined the year for French and Spanish clubbers. To earn money for a field trip to Chicago, the French Club peddled candy. They went to the art museum to see French paintings and had lunch at a French restaurant. Pan Am Club members spent a day at the dunes when the weather turned warm. The beach party was financed with money earned at a dance.

THE "Favorite Teacher Contest" was the French Club's fund-raising project for the Polio Drive, at a nickel a vote, Mr. Karagin and Miss Yatsko were named "Favorite Teachers."

Players Rehearse "1984"

CALUMET players meet to discuss props and stage make-up.

"BECAUSE I love you!" exclaims Anna Stigall to Dennis Doer.

"UP with your hands, you're a spy... a traitor...!" screams Barbara Cooley at Dennis Doer. Judy Stansberry says, "Go to your room—you're a bad spy!"

"NOW look, Dennis," Director Paul Borlick tells Dennis Doer. "you've got to put some emotion in those lines," Assistant Director Barbara Cooley agrees.

PLAYERS' officers Anna Stigall, president; Velida Drake, secretary, and Bill Chancellor, vice-president, choose pins for player members.

THERESA Borna reads for the part of the waitress in "1984."

LOUISE Kirkland and Bernia Torchia sell tickets to the melodrama.

Players held their breath, crossed their fingers, and hoped for a part in the production of George Orwell's "1984."

After long technical rehearsals, line sessions, walk throughs, and much anxiety on the part of director Mr. Paul Borlick, the three-act drama was staged.

As soon as the picture of "Big Brother," the "War is Peace" and "Freedom is Slavery" signs were carted off the stage, the thespians began rehearsing for "True Blue and Trusted." Stage crews and actors worked hard to shape up the melodrama for presentation to the high school and junior high.

When the heavy make-up was scrubbed off, the costumes folded and put away, the Players celebrated a successful season with a trip to Chicago to—what else—see a play!

VARSITY cheerleader Elaine Roll recites a new cheer at a pep session.

The roaring support behind the athletic events is the Pep Club. At the 1964-65 basketball games, the cheering block stood out in red and white capes, forming a white "C."

In their constant campaign to promote school spirit, the club purchased a victory flag for Calumet games, sold red-and-white pennant pins, and provided buses for all away games.

COPY Editor Pam Saroff completes an assignment for deadline number one.

LAYOUT Editor Velida Drake plans page sequence.

As soon as Chieftain editors returned from the I.U. Journalism institute, they began planning the '65 Chieftain.

Photographers showed up in every Calumet nook and cranny, trying to "come up with unusual shots."

Meanwhile the business staff worked on Chieftain publicity, sold subscriptions, solicited and laid out ads.

Operating on an all-time low budget and always under the pressure of coming deadlines, the staff argued, complained, laughed and clowned, but finally succeeded in turning out the '65 Chieftain.

YEARBOOK editors Velida Drake, layouts, and Pam Saroff, copy.

OF his Christmas gift from the staff, Mr. Richardson said: "It will come in handy."

Bi-weekly Newspaper New This Year

LINDA Miller, Jim Chancellor and Sherry Van Vleck find humor in an article written by another staff member.

DORIS Oberc and Vickie York discuss plans for a new column.

TERRY Evans and Ron Klimezak find business management somewhat pleasing.

Calumet's newspaper, the "Warrior" has been published for thirteen years. This year the paper was issued bi-weekly for the first time.

The two editors guided the planning, production, and distribution of the newspaper with financing of the operations made possible by the sale of advertising space to local merchants.

Printing of the offset paper is done in the art department by a student staff directed by Mr. Wilson.

Sports

"On the field of friendly strife are sown the seeds which in other years on other fields will bear the fruits of victory."

There was much blood and sweat on Calumet fields this year as Warrior athletes swept through a bad football season into a trophy-winning basketball season.

The perspective would not be complete without a look at the cheering sideline crowds and the dynamic coaches.

Harriers Shine At Regional

MARTIN Schuster, Steve Horton, Aaron Stewart, Gene Holman, Paul Williamson, Ed Jones, Alfinio Olivarez, and Captain Jerry Loy ran for Calumet's cross country squad. Missing from the shot was Jerry Brawley.

"Our boys will shine tonight. Our boys will shine." And the harriers from Calumet did shine. Under the eye of Coach Traicoff the squad took meet after meet, placed third in the Regional, and third in the state finals.

It took months of hard training (even during summer vacation) for the squad to reach its goal of being a winning team.

COACH Traicoff holds a spirited skull session for the team as he works to bring out their best qualities.

SPECTATORS gathered in great numbers to watch the finish of the State Meet.

NEITHER rain, sleet, snow, nor study hall keep thin clads from daily workouts.

It was a warm, windy day when the runners from Calumet High School arrived at the site of the Regionals. Within the next two hours they would take third place and be on their way to the State Finals. The runners grew tense as they lined up for the sound of the starting gun. Coach Chris Triacoff gave a last minute pep talk to his runners then stepped to the side lines. With a loud bang, the gun went off and the meet was on.

Shortridge Invitational

The team received a trophy for outstanding effort in placing second. Individual plaques, and medals for outstanding times on the two-mile run, were awarded to captain Jerry Loy and sophomore Aaron Stewart at Shortridge.

CLAD in sweat clothes, Warrior runners have a briefing with Captain Jerry Loy (center) before the State meet.

"IT only hurts when I run, Coach."

WITH the speed of Mercury, runners in the state finals break for their two-mile run.

Third At State Provides

"RUNNERS, take your places," signaled the final count down for Calumet's impressive third-place win at the State Finals.

COACH Traicoff and squad members Steve Horton, Jerry Loy, Ed Jones, Manager Joe Cudziol, Jerry Brawley, Alfinio Olivarez, and Aaron Stewart pose at Indianapolis with their hard-earned trophy.

"If you don't do anything else, I want you boys to finish together," coaches Mr. Traicoff at the State Meet.

Close For Successful Season

STARTING the two-mile cross country run means that many hours of practice have brought each runner to this spot.

FRED Leaf heads into a mass of opposition as he attempts to gain yardage.

CALUMET and Chesterton wait to see just who does have the pigskin.

STOP that man!

Suffering some major setbacks this season, Calumet's gridmen "bulldogged" their way to a 3-6 record.

Highlight of the season was the 20-7 Homecoming victory over East Gary Edison.

Tony Valencia, Al Streeter, and "Rapid Robert" Brown were selected for the all-conference team. Morrie Nies received honorable mention for additional conference honor.

CALUMET comes out on top in this play—next to the referee, that is.

VALENCIA'S injury was short-lived. A quick fix and back into the game.

Warriors struck the second gay note on the seasonal football keyboard with a 20-7 win over the East Gary Edison Eagles Homecoming night, October 16.

During half-time, the four Homecoming queen finalists paraded the field in decorated convertibles. Emcee Dennis Doerr proclaimed Elaine Roll Calumet's 1964 Queen of Homecoming and announced that Tony Valencia won the title of Mr. Football.

The Queen laid her roses aside to join in Calumet's first dance of the year which featured Ron Bordon and the Reflections. In the gym's dim lighting, Homecoming '64 festivities ended.

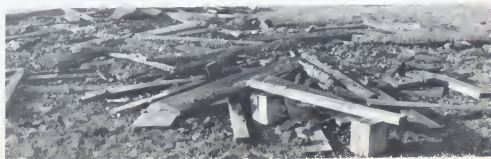

TOUCHDOWN!

A mute reminder of Homecoming — also a reminder of our burning victory over East Gary!

Play Full Schedules

JOHN Trotter breaks clear and leaves all competitors behind.

Victories over Dyer, East Gary, Wirt, and Hammond High highlighted the season for the Frosh. Five of the other eleven contests on their schedule were losses of less than ten points.

Jack Mote led the scoring for the team.

LAUNCHING himself above his opponents, Harper drops two more in the bucket.

WILLIE tries for another basket which they need desperately, as the juniors beat the seniors in the In-Out game.

Basketball Has Impressive Opening

WAYNE Canady "sinks one" for two points in the pre-season basketball game.

OSCAR Coleman shoots despite Doug Sinks' effort to stop him.

DAVE Coleman tries for one point while players wait, anticipating the result.

"Two, two, we want two. . ." were the cries of the cheerleaders and fans as the 1964-65 basketball season for Calumet opened.

In the opening game of the season against Emerson, the Warriors scored an easy 80-66 victory. This was followed by trouncings delivered to Wirt, 64-57, and Lowell, 85-62.

Calumet's fourth game of the season unnerved many of the fans as Highland slipped by the Warriors, 58-55. The Calumet cagers never had the lead but stayed on the Trojan's heels till the last three minutes when Highland scored the winning points.

Warriors Trounce Early Foes

CLARENCE Harper screens for John Trotter.

CENTER, Wayne Canady chalks up two more points.

Coach Traicoff's smile was a mile wide as he and Captain Willie Cross placed the new tournament trophies in the case early this season.

The "cagers" brought home the Lake County Tourney and the Hammond Gavit Tourney statuettes following a splendid performance before the avid sports enthusiasts in the area. Calumet's total pointage for the two tournaments was 394 to their opponents (five other schools) 205 points.

WAYNE "Step" Canady rolls around Ray Dividen of Lowell for two points.

This Is What Makes

T-E-A-M . . TEAM! While the team is in a huddle, the varsity cheerleaders lead the yell section in a cheer.

What makes basketball?

The tense excitement of the crowds; The hoarse yells and strenuous motions of the cheerleaders; Popcorn and soft drinks; Refs in black and white stripes, vigorously blowing shrill whistles; Coaches with clenched fists and inaudible mumblings; A kaleidoscope of red-and-white confetti and capes; A court of continuous movement; Alert bodies, glistening with sweat, tense muscles, jumping, shooting falling . . . A busload of tired and happy victors singing, "... Warriors, we're all for you," bringing another trophy home.

HEY! Is it gonna go in?

EVERYONE enjoys the game.

ANOTHER trophy is brought home by Coach Traicoff and Captain Willie Cross.

A Winning Season:

Class Votes For Top Seniors

Academic standing, contribution to the school, leadership, and friendliness were considered as the Class of '65 selected its outstanding seniors.

Elaine Cox and Tony Valencia have recorded an outstanding record at Calumet. Both have made valuable contributions to the school, during their high school careers.

Their combined leadership of the Polio Drive and its subsequent success is a prime example of why these two were selected by their classmates for this high honor.

Class Officers Guide Seniors Through Last Year

1964-65 Senior Class Officers: Bill Chancellor, V. Pres.; Elaine Roll, Pres.; Elaine Cox, Treas.; Chuck Petersen, Sec.

The Senior Class Planning Committee designed and arranged a homecoming parade to add more color and spirit to Homecoming '64. Seniors spent the rest of the year planning, too—namely, planning the baccalaureate and graduation programs. They selected graduation announcements and name cards and traded senior pictures; they closed the year's activities with the Senior Class Dinner-Dance.

Sophomores Order Rings,

Sophomores launched the year's activities by sponsoring a sockhop to boost their treasury $60.00 worth. Part of the money was used to purchase decorations for their Homecoming Car.

Executing the pleasant and traditional sophomore responsibility, they cast ballots for ring styles and, in April, ordered the class rings.

SOPHOMORE Class Officers include: Jim Ferguson, President; Jeanne Lynch, Treasurer; Jo Kay Dilbeck, Secretary; and Sandy Sharp, Vice-President.

Freshmen Begin Calumet Routine,

FRESHMEN Class Officers include: Kathy Lute, Sec.; Dan Mc Clanahan, Vice-Pres.; and Howard Funston, President. Treasurer, Pam Yarbrough was not present for picture.

The Class of '68, unlike freshmen of past years, was already familiar with the high school building. Skipping this traditional induction, they began planning—a sock hop, a spring party for their class.

The freshmen participated in homecoming activities, decorating a convertible, and in the Polio Drive.

Academically, the ninth grade made a change in curriculum. They began a new program of two years of physical education, supplemented by semester classes of civics and vocational education classes.

Advertising

Feet throbbing from endless hiking through shopping centers and department stores, tempers a little short from previous refusals, Calumet advertising solicitors tromped from store to store to consult managers about buying ads in the Chieftain. And what was their reward? Many Calumet merchants said "yes" with a smile.

The editors express their appreciation to the merchants, patrons, and the advertising staff who worked together to compile this very essential section of the Chieftain.

Inland Steel is here . . . for more than 70 years

For more than 70 years men and women have been building successful careers at Inland Steel. Today many of your relatives, friends and neighbors are working at the Indiana Harbor Works of Inland Steel in a wide variety of occupations providing steel that goes into bridges, buildings, refrigerators, ranges, farm machines, automobiles, tools, toys . . . into thousands of products that we use each day. Many are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in production departments. Others are working in laboratories helping to assure quality or developing new and better products for our customers.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades through formal apprenticeship programs offered in the following trades — Machinist, Patternmaking, Boilermaking, Welding, Shop Electrician, Wireman, Mason. Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs or the Purdue-Inland Training Program in which an employee may take a steelmaking, electrical or mechanical curriculum. Still others are continuing their formal education at one of the local extension centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you at INLAND STEEL . . .

If you can't be a highway, then just be a trail,

If you can't be a sun, be a star,

For it isn't by size you win or fail—

Be the best of whatever you are.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the English language. It is argued that the study of the history of the English language is not only a matter of academic interest, but also a matter of practical importance. The study of the history of the English language can help us to understand the development of the English language and the influence of other languages on it. It can also help us to understand the social and cultural context in which the English language has developed.
